Radical Philosophy* 200 (November/December 2016) will be the final issue of the current print edition of the journal.

Plans are under way to relaunch Radical Philosophy in a new form in 2017. Please keep an eye out for announcements on our website in the new year.

All subscribers whose subscriptions end with RP 199 will receive RP 200 free of charge. All subscribers with issues outstanding on their subscriptions after issue 200 will continue to have free access to the entire archive, and free downloads, throughout 2017, while the new project is being finalized. Any subscribers who would prefer to receive a refund for issues remaining on their subs (thereby giving up continuing free archive access and free downloads) should write to subs@radicalphilosophy.com

All current and recent subscribers will receive details of the new Radical Philosophy as soon as they are available.
